

INNOCENCE NETWORK UK (INUK) ANNUAL SPRING CONFERENCE

Investigating a Claim of Innocence: Going Beyond a Desktop Review

25 March 2011

Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton, London

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

	1.00 p.m.	Registration
	1.15 p.m.	Welcome & Introduction by the Chair of the event – Dr Eamonn O’ Neill, University of Strathclyde
1	1.30 p.m.	Presentation by Dr Eamonn O’Neill – ‘CSI – Innocence Project’
2	2.30 p.m.	Innocence Project Presentations of Case Investigations
	2.30-3.00 p.m.	Presentation by Sarah Stout and Laura Moorby, Sheffield Hallam University Innocence Project
	3.00–3.30 p.m.	Presentation by Mark Allum and Ryan Jendoubi, University of Bristol Innocence Project
	3.30 p.m.	Break
3	3.45 p.m.	Presentation by Dean Kingham, Swain and Co. ‘Interviewing Witnesses and Obtaining Affidavits’
4	4.30 p.m.	Presentation by Dr Michael Naughton and Gabe Tan, INUK, ‘The need for caution when using DNA evidence in criminal trials to avoid convicting the innocent’
5	5.00 p.m.	Keynote Speaker: Julian Young, Julian Young & Co. ‘Investigating and overturning Sean Hodgson’s conviction using DNA’
	6.00 p.m.	Close of Conference/Drinks Reception